Aqueous and High Temperature Corrosion Section

Bibliography of Publications 1983-1998

PREFACE

This report lists the publications generated by the corrosion groups at NPL and is a sequel to NPL Report DMA (A) 82, which covered the period 1924-1983. The publications cover a wide range of topics including varied aspects of aqueous corrosion, high temperature corrosion, properties of oxide and coatings, and environmental degradation of polymeric materials. The listing is organised in terms of primary industrial sectors to enable ready assessment of their relevance.
